POINT PARK UNIVERSITY

Mission

Pioneer Pantry strives to alleviate food insecurity by providing supplemental food free to those in need within the Point Park University community. We work to change the perception of hunger on campus and to provide resources to educate students about nutrition and healthy eating.

Hours of Operation

Monday - 9 AM to 11 AM

Wednesday & Thursday - 2 PM to 6 PM

Last Saturday of the Month - 11 AM to 2 PM

Eligibility

To be eligible to receive items from the food pantry, all students must be currently enrolled at Point Park University. Eligible students may receive food two times per calendar month.

A green rectangular button with rounded corners and the text "ORDER NOW" in white, serif, all-caps font.

Please bring you Point Park University ID to pick up food order.

NOTE: Please note students are not allowed to pick up food for other students.

If a student has received food at the Pioneer Pantry twice in a calendar month and are still in need, Emergency Food Bags are available at the Center for Student Success
